duke

We dedicate the 1960 Signpost to a man with an unfailing sense of humor and understanding; to a man whose advice we follow and respect; to a man who is sincere to us and to his job; to a man that has taught us to build our character and thinking. The admiration of the students and the faculty for "Duke" is more than can be expressed in Words.

"Duke" was born in Alma, Michigan and attended high school and college in Mt. Pleasant. He also attended the University of Michigan and Michigan State where he recieved his B.A. and B.S. degrees. For a while he taught school in Portland and Edmore. For twelve years he worked at Jackson Prison in Jackson, Michigan as head of the Education Department and as Deputy Warden. In 1947, he came to Leelanau where he has been ever since. He is the Assistant Headmaster and the Manager of the Homestead Hotel. He is the teacher of Civics and Biology and the Track Coach.

To George I. Francis "Duke", this yearbook is dedicated with sincere appreciation.

Leelanau

MAJOR ARTHUR S. HUEY, President

Usually a signpost tells us where we are going or identifies a building or place which we are approaching.

The Leelanau Signpost is a record of students, teachers, teams, buildings and events, and in this sense seems to look back at the year rather than forward.

For me it looks both backwards and forwards, and in both categories provides a pleasant reaction. In the end result Leelanau is people more than buildings. Glancing back over the year I think of the delightful associations I have had with the students. It has been a good year and individually and collectively you can be proud of the record which is preserved for the future in this book.

But when I look at these attractive pages I also think of the future, of the promise which you each symbolize in the world of tomorrow. I feel certain you will take your proper places in society, make the needed contribution to the world about you, and probably exceed my own generation in leadership and accomplishment.

Progress is not always a steady line upwards on the graph of life, but as I stop to take a look at each of you in these pages somehow I feel that through you Leelanau is steadily reaching higher goals. The spirit shown by the Signpost committee itself is a good example of what I would convey.

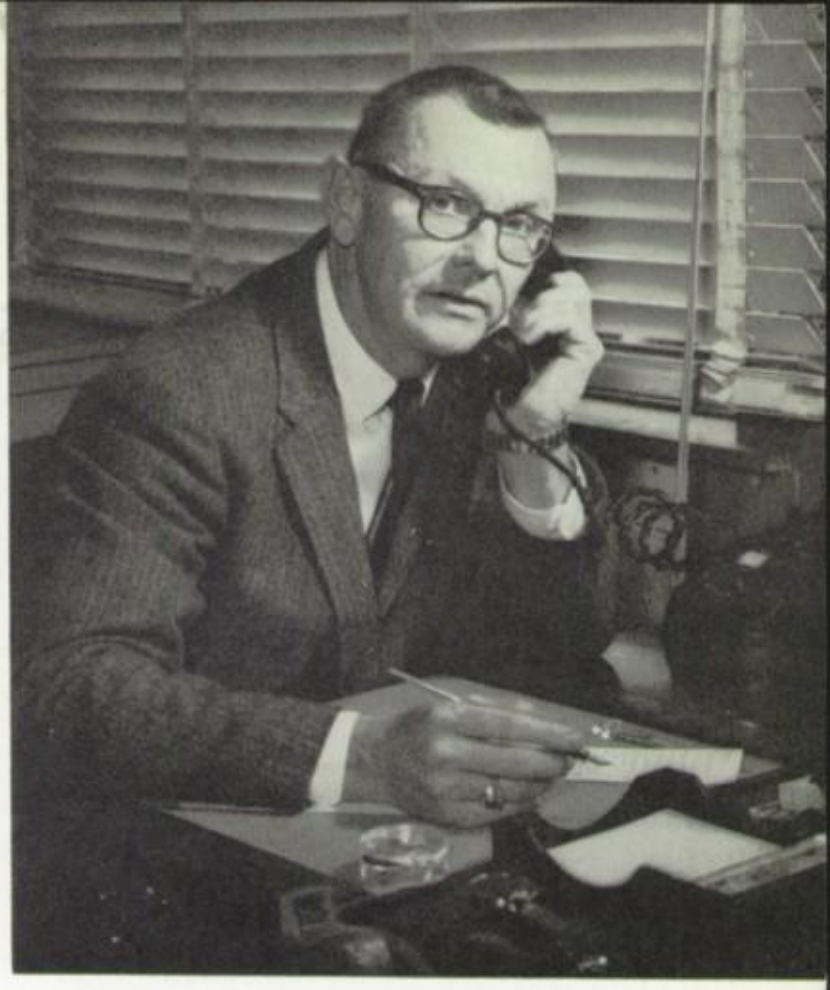
administration

As another year draws to an end, it is pleasant to look back on the events of the past nine months with the aid of this book. This has been an eventful year--a new curriculum, a championship football team, new highs in scholastic achievement--so many things to make this year memorable.

What has made possible these propitious experiences? The work of all here at school--the faculty and staff, the governing committees, the seniors, and the underclassmen have had a hand in it. Everyone is to be congratulated for his or her part. The world needs the kind of work displayed here--individual initiative and responsibility to work for the common good.

Many thanks to the Signpost staff for giving us a treasured reminder of a memorable year.



CHARLES W. SHINN, Headmaster

new faces

Tom Quick, Russel Tathem,
Charles Allen, David Graves

Bonnie Strutz, Carol Rodger, Sue Quick

Second semester each year Leelanau and Pinebrook have an opportunity to enroll a few new students. This year seven new faces appeared at the beginning of the semester. We are in hopes that they are enjoying their new home for we feel that they are very welcome additions to the student body.

GOVERNING

One of the traditions of Leelanau is the election each semester of the student governing committees of the student body. Five girls and five boys are chosen for their responsibility and leadership.

The purpose of these committees is to develop self-government, co-operation, and to inspire a sense of well-being among the students.

The Pinebrook and Leelanau Letter Clubs were established in 1943 for girls and boys who earned their letters in competitive sports. The prime purpose of these clubs is to promote sportsmanship in school life, as well as in athletics.

Prospective members are voted in by active members and undergo a period of initiation, the purpose of which is to test their sportsmanship.

The "P" Club sponsors the pop machines in Riveredge, the Semi-formal spring dance, and the annual Hockey Banquet.

The "L" Club sponsors the pop machines in Oak Ridge, and is responsible for a lot of the enthusiasm of our football, basketball and baseball games and our track meets.

Together the two clubs sponsor Homecoming weekend, which includes the formal dance, a football game, and a field hocky exhibition.

PRESIDENT: George Blackford
VICE-PRESIDENT: Fraser
SECRETARY-TREASURER: Charley Freeman

MEMBERS: Bill Perrett, Chip Latimer, Tom Adams, Jim Sykes, Scotty Powers, Bill Cunningham, Wayne Quade, Tom Ambrose.

National Honor Society

There is no honor conferred by the Leelanau Schools that excels membership in the National High School Honor Society. Other honors are only partial because they recognize ability in a special field, but the National Honor Society recognizes four demensions of life; Character, Leadership, Service, and Scholarship.

Mimi Davis and Chuck Lane were elected as working members last year. New members will be elected in February.

The yearbook staff strives to present a clear and accurate pictoral record of the school year in an interesting and attractive manner in the form of the SIGNPOST. This serves as an unifying element for the student body and gives the parents and patrons an insight to our school life.

Valuable opportunities for educational business and social advancement were offered to each member of the staff, advised by Jo Anne Jacobs, during the year.

Through the hard work and co-operation of its eight members, the LIMELIGHT newspaper was distributed to students throughout the school year. Up to the minute news on all school events, essays and poems, as well as personality comments were obtained and organized by the staff members, advised by Mr. Davis, to keep the students well informed and amused. Congratulations for a job well done!

This year the Leelanau Indians captured first place in the Northwestern Class C Conference. Under the guidance of Coach Charles Shinn and assistant coach, Robert Anderlik, the Green and Sand completed a very successful season having only 13 points scored against them and scoring 113 points against their opponents. We are hopeful that next year will be just as prosperous as this year turned out to be for the Indians.

This years cheerleaders were really a great help in giving our school the spirit needed to gain the competitive attitude towards victory. The lasting patience and spirit on those cold and rainy days during football season and the school cheering all helped towards winning the conference.

The Leelanau Indians worked hard this year but were not rewarded by as many wins as they would have liked. Because of ineligibility, the team often played without several players which proved to be a handicap.

The J.V.'s did well this year and with seven Seniors on this year's squad, let's hope that these next year's Varsity players can make a champion basketball team for 1961.

Much credit should be given Coach Anderlik and Coach Poole for their work with these teams.

This year Pinebrook field hockey was divided into three teams; the green, the white, and the victorious blues. Due to the amount of rain that fell this fall, the playing time was limited. However the following girls proved their playing ability and were awarded letters; Sandy Amos, Janet Berglin, Mimi Davis, Sandy Gee, Adele Huey, Wren Kennard, Barb Pierce, Laura Pfieffer, Kelly Woodbury, Nancy Putnam, and team captain Patti Cornish. They were awarded these letters at the annual field hockey banquet which officially ended the season.

The girl's basketball team, coached by Charlene Baker finished their season with a record of four wins and two defeats. Some of the girls who showed outstanding preformances were: Patti Cornish, Laura Pfeiffer, Bonnie Leighton, Sandy Amos, Wren Kennard, Pat Roethe, Adele Huey, Nancy Putnam, Janice Buhl, and Dian Neib.

After the first three games, it looked like the girls would be undefeated--but in the games with Kingsley, they got ahead in the first few minutes of the games and Pinebrook never quite caught up though they remained just five or six points behind through ball games.

Because there are only five Senior members on the team, the chances for next year look good.

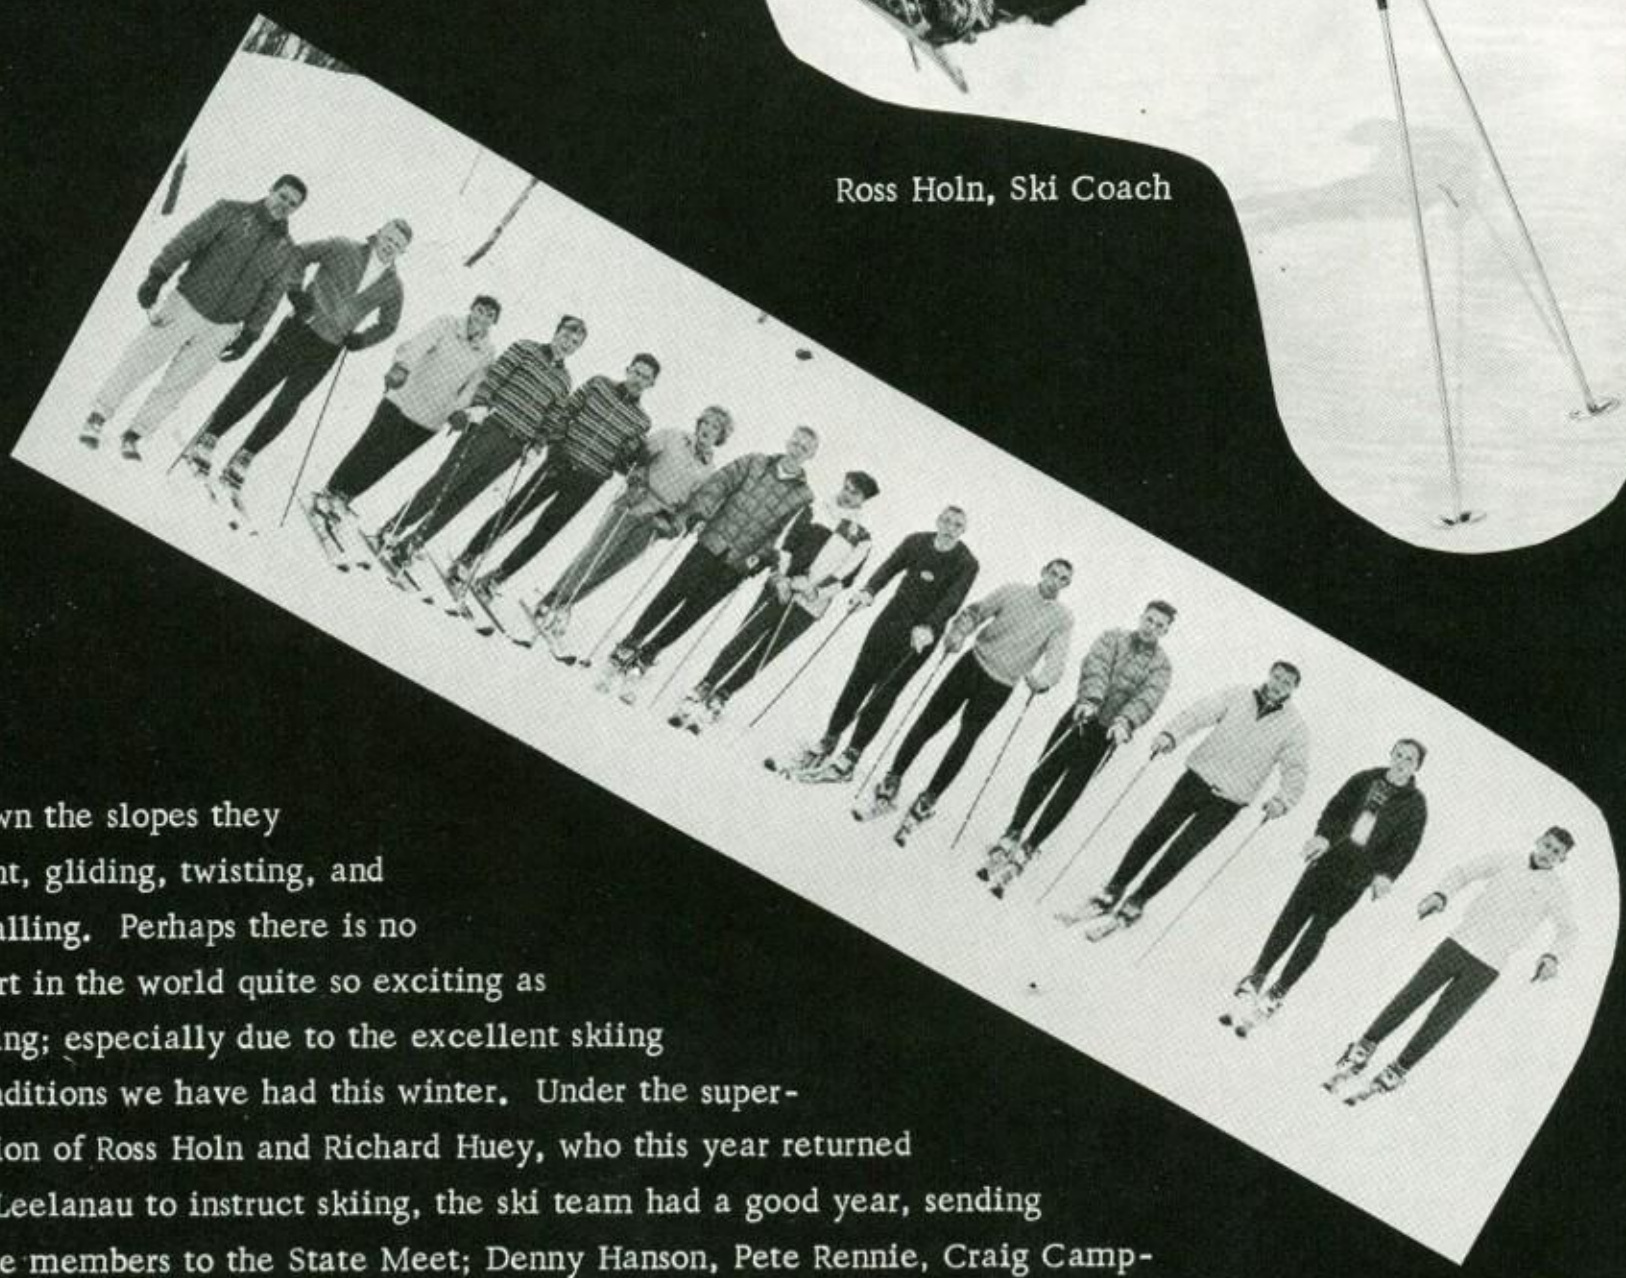
Ross Holn, Ski Coach



Down the slopes they went, gliding, twisting, and --falling. Perhaps there is no sport in the world quite so exciting as skiing; especially due to the excellent skiing conditions we have had this winter. Under the supervision of Ross Holn and Richard Huey, who this year returned to Leelanau to instruct skiing, the ski team had a good year, sending nine members to the State Meet; Denny Hanson, Pete Rennie, Craig Campbell, Jim Sykes, Dick Thompson, Dick Tibbitts, Kelly Woodbury, Mary Linn Bishop and Adele Huey; and Denny Hanson to National Competion. Richard and Ross both attended Leelanau and helped to establish the ski team by their enthusiasm, integrity and ability in the sport.
